CURRICULUM VITAE

COLONEL MICHAEL PATRICK ANDERSON
Chief of the Europe Division (ECJ5-E)
Plans and Policy Directorate, European Command,
Stuttgart, Germany

Colonel Anderson graduated in 1978 from Siena College, Loudonville, New York with a Cum laude degree in Political Science and was commissioned through the Army ROTC Program. Born in Troy, New York, he holds a Master's Degree in International Relations, with an emphasis in European Security from Columbia University in New York City.

Colonel Anderson's military education includes the Army Command and General Staff College, the Foreign Area Officer Program, the Joint Military Attaché School, the NATO Staff Officer Course, the Defense Language Institute (German),the US State Department Foreign Service Institute (Danish), and the Harvard US-Russia Executive Security Program.

He is presently responsible for theater political-military policy development and implementation of all 46 countries in Europe as well as policy oversight of the George C. Marshall Center for European Studies.

He is a European Foreign Area Officer who has served at the US Embassy, Copenhagen as the Army Attaché to the Kingdom of Denmark and previous to that as the Assistant Executive Officer to the Commanding General of the US Army Training and Doctrine Command, Virginia.

He has extensive European service with four tours in Germany, including the US Embassy in Bonn and two tours in the Netherlands, including Deputy G5 of III US Corps (Forward). Colonel Anderson has served on peacekeeping deployments to Croatia (1995) and Hungary (1996) in support of the United Nations and NATO respectively.

Colonel Anderson has commanded in the 5th Infantry Division (Mechanized), Fort Polk, Louisiana, been an Aide de Camp in Germany, a Battalion Executive Officer in the Netherlands and a Deputy Brigade Commander in both Germany and Hungary. Staff assignments include managing US Army relations with Israel and duty as the G5 for the US Army Europe's Theater Support Command.

Military awards and decorations include the Legion of Merit, the Defense Meritorious Service Medal, the Meritorious Service Medal with two oak leaf clusters, the Joint Service Commendation Medal, the Army Commendation Medal, the Armed Forces Expeditionary Medal, and the